Mrs. A. Olsen, Mrs. V. Bradford, Mr. J. Wickens and Mr. V. Temple are taking a break from their normal routines.

Officers Help Solve Students' Problems

Keeping the school running with a minimum of confusion is the joint problem of administrators and counselors. Administrators deal with large-scale operational problems, such as class schedules for 1150 students, while counselors help solve personal problems.

This year two members of Northville's counseling staff experimented with an in-town counseling center called U-Kan. The purpose of opening this center was to give students more opportunity to talk with their counselors and make counseling appointments with working parents more convenient.

The administration has not been without problems this year. They enacted what started out to be a very controversial hall pass policy. Every student in the hall was required to carry a pass from his classroom. However, students found little inconvenience with the system and the controversy subsided.

Mrs. Reva Shave explains to Fred Sanger and Joe Watson.

Mrs. Cathy Van Horn chats with Becky Kaake.

Mrs. Sandra Cook rescues Mr. John Donahue.

Mrs. Sylvia Torma checks Dan Fialon's grade.

CENTER TOP: Mr. Walt Koepke points out the correct answer to Eugene Lawler. SECOND: Spanish teacher Mrs. Sharon LeDuc and German teacher Mrs. Helga Gueguierre sort new foreign language materials in the lab. The German classes have been on several outings with their new teacher. THIRD: Miss Patricia Dorrian and Bill Pettitt watch a presentation in Humanities class. Mrs. Mary Bray and Mrs. Karen Mayer also teach Humanities which covers literature, music, art and political thought from ancient Greece to today. BOTTOM: Miss Marilyn McCarthy explains gesture-usage to Tim Champine in speech class.

Mrs. Joann Lininger pauses during French.

Mr. Ralph Redmond happily explains MUSTANGER production.

NHS's Language Department Grows

The English Department offers courses ranging from Humanities and Nobel Prize Winners to Dramatics and Now Poetry. This wide selection offers more student choice than previously.

Foreign language classes have been especially active with Spanish class going to Spain and the French Class to Montreal.

Mr. Kurt Kinde watches skits.

Mrs. Nancy Brown grades papers.

Mrs. Mary Bray seems bemused.

Requirements Are Changed

Traditionally the Social Studies department has offered courses in government, history and sociology. At Northville High School, the program has been remodeled to include courses in specific interest areas. Under Mr. Al Jones, the department head, the requirements in the social studies area has been lowered to one and a half years.

Mrs. Stephanie Kelly attempts to answer a student's question.

Mrs. Jane Crawford inspires her students to think.

Mr. Jack Townsley enjoys talking about the civil war.

Mr. Robert Simpson lectures to his class.

Mr. David Graff has a discussion with students about test questions.

Math, Science Open Doors to New Wonders

Mrs. Sharon Snodgrass has some math tests returned.

The science and math departments are changing with times. Starting with the 1972-1973 school year there will be a math requirement of only one year. There will also be two new subjects offered in the science department. These classes are Photography and Conservation.

Mr. Robert Sharra prepares a solution for his class.

Mr. Robert Trombley helps Doug Mowat and Ann Price with their chemistry.

Mr. Michael White uses an overhead for class.

One of the new teachers is Charles Apap.

Mrs. Lynn Moshier conducts her class.

Mr. John Edwards, Mr. Ron Meteyer filter chemicals for class.

Mr. Pete Theiss conducts a laboratory session with his earth science students.

Mr. Larry Brugman corrects chemistry tests.

Ambassadors Come to Mustang Country

Foreign students visiting during the '71-'72 school year are seniors, Mani Chua, Rick Guevara from the Philippines and Reik Saguis of Holland. Juniors are, Corinne Freixa of France and Nadja Correa from Brazil.

The newest club formed in Northville High School is the International Club. The purpose of the club is to promote better friendship between visiting exchange students and our school. Activities such as a toboggan party are only one of the benefits of joining the International Club.

Congress Works Hard To Meet Needs

Heading the 56 member Student Congress this year are: Missy Eddy, President; Reese Lenheiser, Vice-President; Sarah Horner, Parliamentarian; Lee Kushmaul, Treasurer; Vicki Brown, Secretary; Lisa Armstrong, Recording Secretary.

During their meetings, the Congress has organized projects such as redecorating the girl's lavatories and putting in a public telephone for students' use. Aside from this, Congress' unfinished business involves the 18 year old age-of-majority rights to be practiced on school grounds.

The Congress this year was active, ambitious, powerful and prosperous.

Kaufman, Har

When George Washington Slept Here was presented last fall, it marked the second consecutive year Northvill turned to the team of Kaufman and Har. The hilarious comedy centered around simple, naive Newton Fuller (Crai Barnard) and his desire to own a country home — no matter what the cost. Plagued with everything from Japanese beetles to foreclosure, Newton and his family struggle to maintain their property and finally keep it through some fast work by Newton's con-artist uncle Stanley Menninger (Reese Lenheiser).

The show was presented on three nights of November 18, 19, 20 and drew good crowds. Mr. Kurt Kinde, the new drama teacher, was delighted over the performance. George Washington Slept Here was the first high school play he ever directed and produced.

Who can make orange and black paper, paint, glue and lots of imagination boost spirit?—the girls of Pep Club. Through every sport season it is these girls who keep hopes of victory high.

Pep Jug competition was held this year during January and February with points given for decorating halls, making signs, and performing gimmicks at games. The inter-class competition was an incentive for the many clever sign ideas that decorated the halls. Officers this year were Nancy Loeffler, Leslie Brasure, Diane Horwath, Steffi Bach, and Nancy Nirider. Miss Dorrian was again the Club's sponsor.

No matter how you spell it out, Mustangs have the winning combination.

N-Club: Where Boys Turn Into Men

If it weren't for N-Club, where would our school be? We would starve at basketball games, there would be no one to guard our gym floors at pep assemblies, and who would keep the peace in the halls?

But, N-Club does more than just take care of our school: they take trips to see College and Professional football, baseball, basketball and hockey games.

Withering Weather Greet Homecoming 71

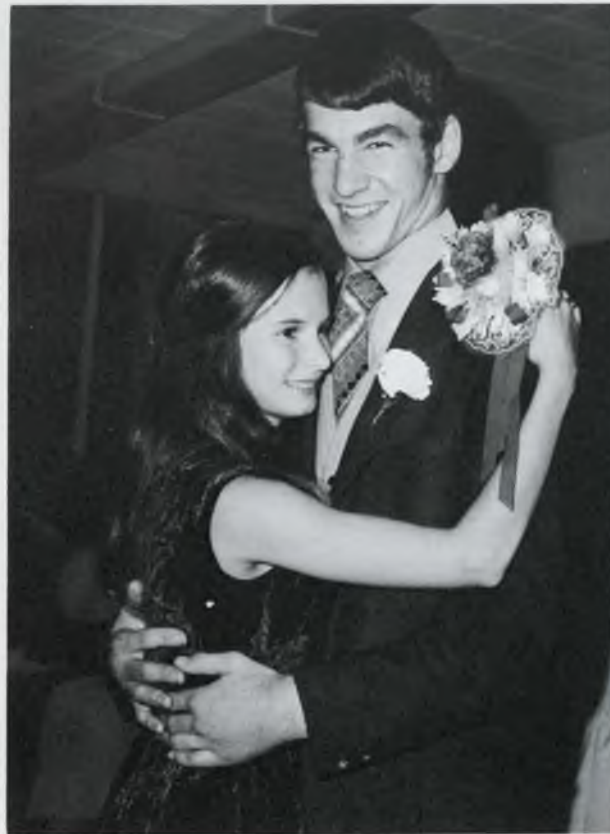

Remember all the fun of preparing for Homecoming? Each class worked so hard to come up with the winning float. Everyone practiced so hard to show skill in the class football games. The students, also, showed strength in smashing a car. Remember the bonfire? It sure was cold that night, freezing on one side and roasting on the other. Then the day finally came when the queen candidates sat patiently waiting to learn who would be the new queen. Everyone was so excited.

Remember the big game? It was so foggy you could hardly see the field and then only having half power for lights didn't help much. But we managed and cheered our team to a tie with Brighton.

Remember the Homecoming Dance, 'A Lion in Winter'? The Jazz Band provided the music. And everyone there had a good time. Do you remember Homecoming 1971?

Band Gets It Together

The band gets it together with perfection in giving your activities a big boost. They played at our football games, pep assemblies, basketball games, the Thanksgiving concert, and even had time to perform in their own concert which was a great success. So give a great big hand to the people in the band.

Pom Pom Style

'Dig, ooh, ahh, we got the spirit!' This is but one of the many cheers our cheerleaders did at football and basketball games. Although many students may have lost their spirit, the cheerleaders stayed their peppy and spirited selves. They spread spirit throughout the school and helped cheer us to victories.

The Pom Pom girls did a fine job entertaining the spectators at the games and giving our school song a little zip. They made up routines to a number of songs and performed them well.

Choir Performs Variety of Concerts

If someday you should happen to walk by the Vocal Music room during 4th hour, you might hear the sound of voices in the air. You might stop to decide if it is really the choir or a record. If you peek through the window, you will see that it is really the Northville Choir. They practice long and hard to keep their voices in tune.

Throughout the year the choir performed a great variety of concerts. They performed a Thanksgiving concert, a Christmas concert and even had a harpist come and play for them. They always have large turnouts, and perform well.

The Girls' Tennis Team was a young one this year, having only two players with playing experience. This had a lot to do with their season record of 0-4. They look forward to a better record next year as many players return.

The Volleyball Team was one of the best if not the best team of recent years. They posted a 6-1 win-loss record with their one defeat a thrilling match which could have gone either way.

The Girls' Swim Team splashed its way to a 1-4 season. Dual meet competition was a challenge for Northville's young team, but as they became "seasoned" they were able to swim their way to second place in the League meet.

Debate Turns Out Good Season

Competing against Northville in the Wayne Oakland Debate League are Groves High School, W. Bloomfield, Farmington Harrison, Milford, Clarkston, Cranbrook, Brighton, and Lahser.

The teams are each judged on the analysis of their topic, organization, reasoning, evidence, delivery, and refutation.

As the Junior Varsity and Varsity Debate season came to an end, they both had a fair record. The Junior Varsity team won 15 of 20 debates and Varsity won 12 of 20.

Honor Society and Co-op Are Two Active Groups

Mr. Saunders helps Barb Lovett with a problem in Retailing.

The Co-op workers have a busy schedule. In addition to classes at the high school the students spend several hours on the job. This provides valuable experience for them. Two forms of Co-op have been developed at N.H.S. Distributive Education employs the student at a business which has a product or service to sell. Mr. Saunders is the director. The other program is Office Practice Co-op, coordinated by Mrs. Hayes. A student in this course is employed in a business which is related to the operating of an office.

Honor Society activities, with the help of their sponsor Mr. Meteyer, began early in the year. In November the club went on a field trip to the Pollution Research Labs in Ann Arbor. On December 9, Mr. Marvin R. Stempien was guest speaker at the induction of 41 new members. The club made an amendment to the chapter constitution changing the term of club officers from one year to one semester.

Office Helpers Give Service With Smiles

Collecting, sorting, answering, and assisting are all part of the job of being an office girl. The workers get a lot of exercise carrying messages throughout the school. Palladium Staff Learns by Doing

Melody Walker and Libby Lonn decide on the size of the picture for their layout.

The yearbook staff worked many long hours to produce the 1972 Palladium. The staff was an inexperienced one with only three returning members from last year. Co-sponsors Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Guequierre were also new to producing a yearbook, but they and the staff worked together to complete the 1972 edition. This year's book has a new look with a cloth cover and silk-screen print—a new style for NHS.

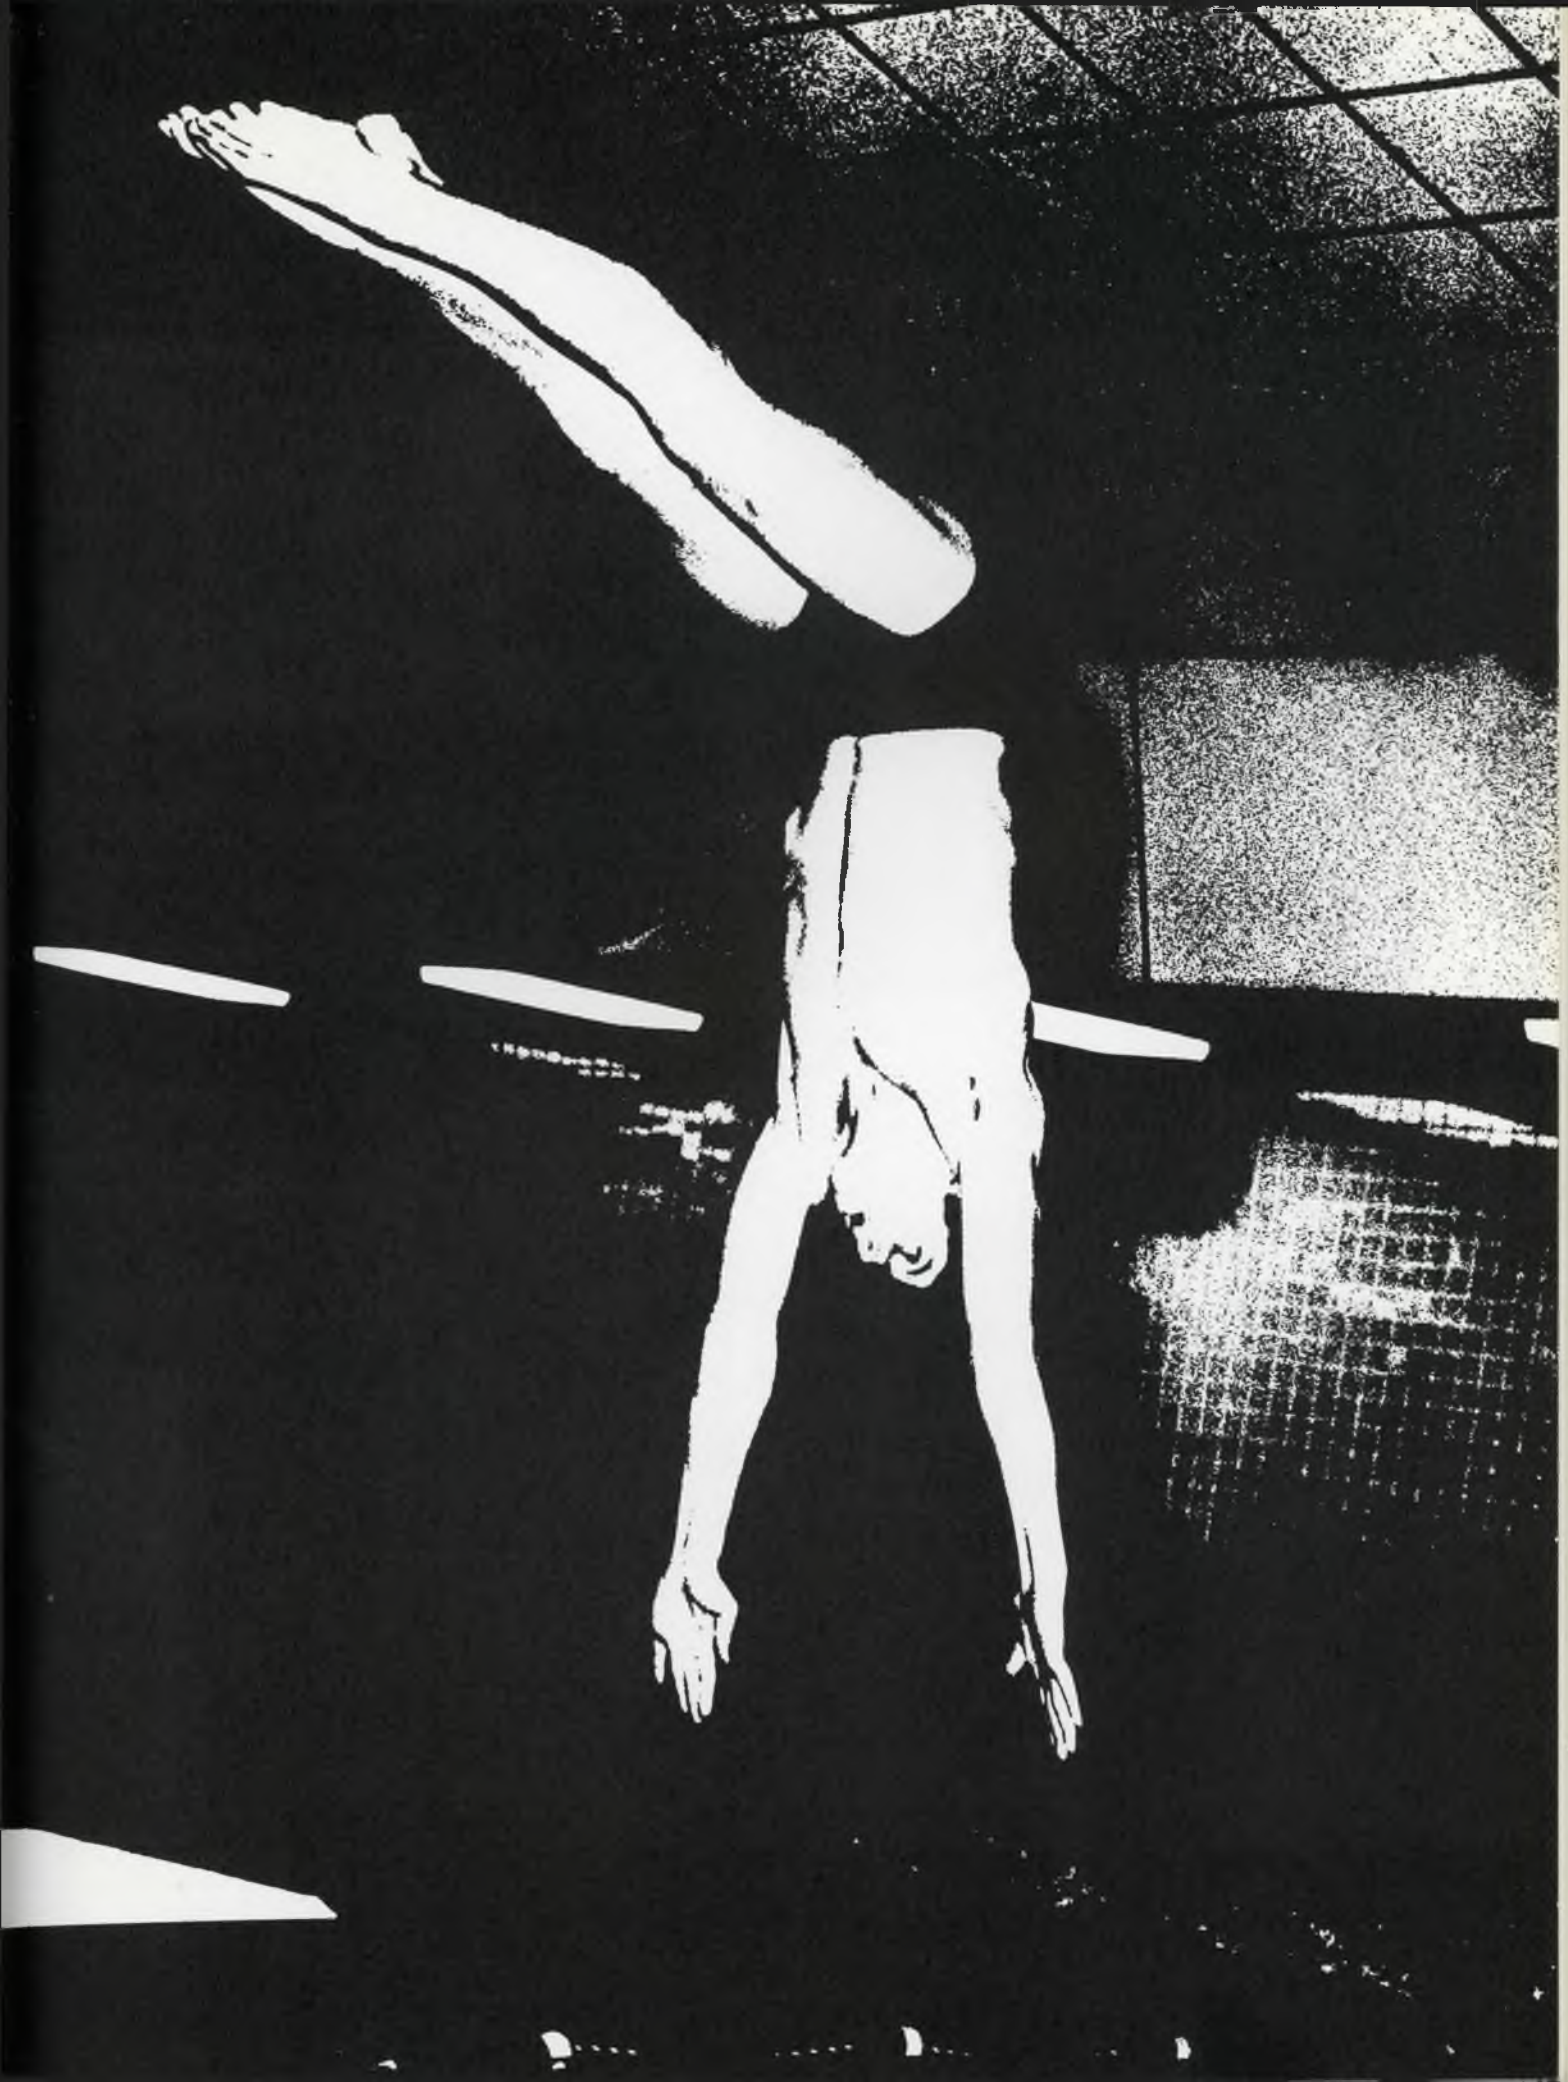

To the staff members, the Palladium holds memories of missed deadlines, afterschool workdays and many Saturday mornings spent at school. But the satisfaction of knowing they were a part of making the yearbook and the joy of finally turning in the last pages makes everything worthwhile.

New Coach, Young Team Look Ahead

Excitement fills the football season at NHS. And there's no doubt that Northville's got spirit. Students and adults alike gave much support to the team.

The Mustangs worked hard from the first day of practice to the last game of the season. They went into each game with high spirits, fighting hard to reach the goal line. Muscles were strained, nerves were on end, with bruise after bruise the fight went on throughout the season.

Despite the league standing of last place, Coach Shonta in his first year of coaching at Northville, stated "We have a good young team and we'll have most of the players back next year. We'll miss Dale Griffith and Jeff Moon but we should have some good players coming from the J.V. team."

This year's captains were Doug Boor and Chuck Cook. Our Most Valuable Players were Dale Griffith and Jeff Moon. Honorable Mentions were given to Bill McDonald, Jim Porterfield, Dale Griffith, John Sherman, Steve Serkaian and Jeff Moon received All-League.

Desire To Win Characterize Season

Spirit and desire to win were surely in the hearts of this year's Varsity basketball players. They fought their way to an over-all 6-12 season record and in the final league standings, placed third with a 3-5 conference record behind Churchill and Mott.

This year's team captain was Todd Hannert who scored 9 points as an average, and the team's Most Valuable Player was Bill Andrews with an average of 13.8 points. Bill also received All-League honors.

Coach Koepke commented on the four senior members, Bill Andrews, Scott Evans, Jeff Moon, and Todd Hannert, "all showed great improvement as the season went on."

Next year, with the help of new Varsity players, the Mustangs hope for a brighter winning season.

Cross Country Finishes Third in League

In many sports teamwork and coordination are essential to bring success, but in Cross Country it is individual ability that is most important. Our 1971-72 Harriers came through with a third place in the All League Meet.

In spite of their youth and inexperience, Coach Redmond stated that they did "one heck of a job!" Special recognition was received by Captain Guy Dixon, Most Outstanding Senior and Most Valuable Runner, and Guy Cole was selected Most Improved Runner during this Season. All League Honorable Mention Awards were received by Guy Dixon, Guy Cole, and Jeff Menyhart.

Coach Redmond also stated that next year's team under two fine Co-Captains, Tim Taggart and Jeff Menyhart, should produce a winner.

A new coach and a new league gave Northville a fresh start in wrestling this year and a 5-3-1 record was the result.

This year's captains Dave Griffin and Bill Norton qualified for the District Tournament as did Kevin Hartshorne, John Fialon, and Jim Watson. Norton went to the State Tournament.

Dave Griffin was selected as the team's Most Valuable Player and was also League Champion in his weight class.

Coach Ed McLoud and his grapplers made their presence felt in the Western Six Conference this year and will be looking forward to an even better mark next year.

Tankers Are Best Ever

Tom Cook dives high for a Tanker victory.

This year's swimming team was the best in the history of Northville. With a record of 14-0, who could complain? Again coaching this year's team was Mr. Lauber. Coach Lauber stated that "this year's team had the greatest depth of any team I've ever coached, and was the most versatile of any team I've ever had!"

All-League Awards were received by Jeff Kappler, Art Greenlee, Gary Putrow, Dennis McLaughlin (Medley Relay), John Pacific (50 yd. Freestyle), Joe Boland (Butterfly), Bill Witek, (100 yd. Freestyle) and Bill

Maguire, Jeff Pitak, Dennis McLaughlin and Pete Bedford (400 yd. Freestyle Relay).

All-State Awards were given to Tom Cook (Diving), and Jeff Kappler, Art Greenlee, Joe Boland, and Bill Maguire (200 yd. Medley Relay). The 200 yd. Medley Relay team set a state record of 1:45.6 over the previous record of 1:46.8 set by Holland West Ottawa in 1970.

We can truly say that this year's team did their best for Northville High. We hope that next year's team will do equally well!

Track Fast? They're Gone With the Wind!

What does it take to have a great track team? A lot of hard work, practice, and a lot of determination. That's the driving force behind the young team members of this year's track team. Being young and inexperienced, they'll have to work their way to the top with a lot of muscle power and a mind to match. This year's team captains are Guy Dixon and Dave Newitt.

The senior members have already proved themselves to Coach Redmond and Dave Graff. They will be greatly missed when next year comes. But don't worry, the young team members this year will put their best foot forward and be gone with the wind!

Our Tennis Team Is on the Ball

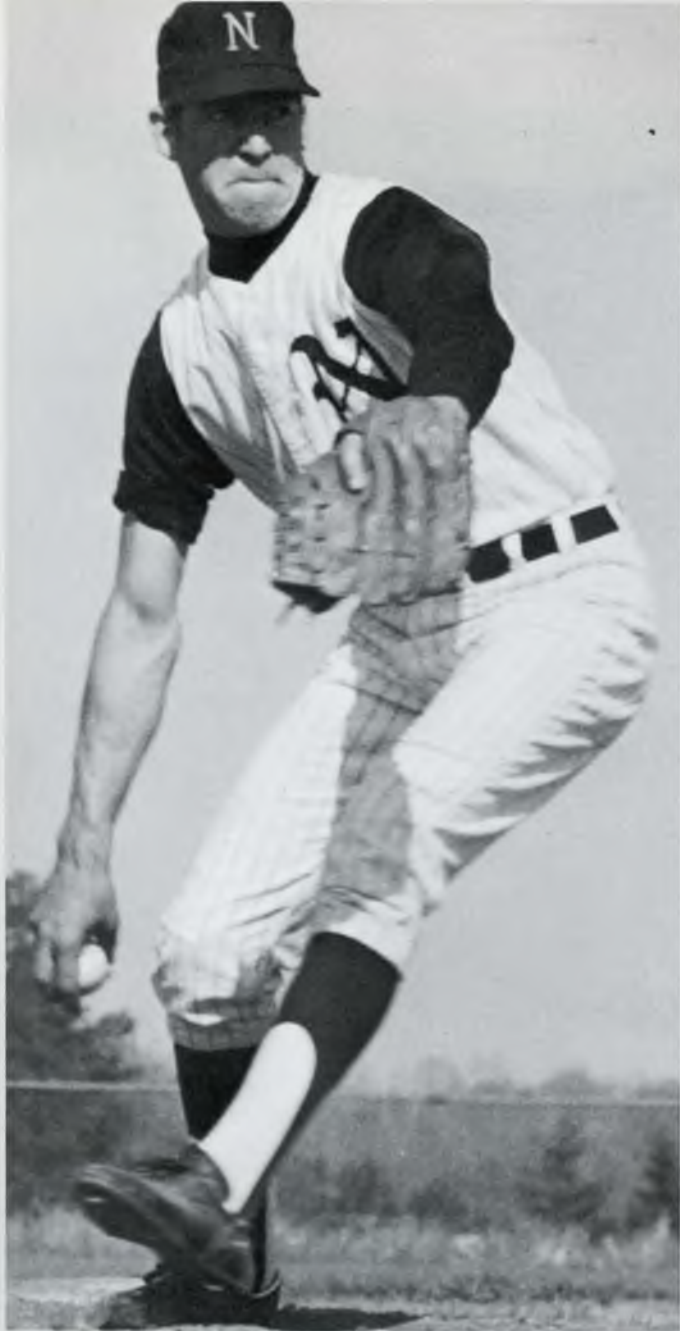

TOP: Steve Penrod is serious about tennis. TOP RIGHT: Carl Weber is really in the swing. BOTTOM RIGHT: Bob Norton is going to slam that ball.

The most outstanding player on the team was John Jerome. He was number one in singles, the most valuable player, and will return next season as the team captain.

Coach Simpson feels this year's team will be more successful than last year's, who finished sixth in the final league standings.

The number one in doubles was Tom Millington, who will also be returning along with Mark Robinson, Wendell Wegeng, and Bob Wright.

A determined Scott Evans pitches.

Northville Wins First Place

What is baseball? Is it green grass, sunshine, hotdogs, peanuts, or is it a whole team working together to score runs, and win honors?

Last year's team did well as a whole. They came in first place in Wayne-Oakland League. They were also successful working as individuals. Scott Evans was nominated All League Pitcher, Rick LaRue was also one of the leading performers on the 70-71 team.

This year, Northville changed leagues and is now in the Western-Six Conference League.

The 71-72 team is doing great. They have many returning ballplayers and have a good chance of winning their first Western-Six Championship.

Golf 1971-- They Were Really Up to Par

The 1971 Golf season at Northville High was just about as good as Coach Al Jones could wish for. They won every match they played, which is a first for Northville. They also won the Dearborn Invitational and the Regionals. Another outstanding aspect of our team were the four members—John Hlohenic, John Marshall, Brian Mills, and Bob Simmons—who made the All-League team.

Among the records set this year was John Hlohenic's tie of a low 9-hole score of 34 and a low 18-hole score of 72. The record was previously 73. The low team dual score was 188 for 5 men, whereas it had been 205.

Special recognition was received by John Hlohenic, who was the runner-up Medalist at the state Class B tournament. He was also the team's Most Valuable Player and Co-captain with John Marshall.

We all hope that the 1972 season will be as successful; and it should be since all the players will be returning.

Hill Will Earn Recognition

Do you realize that the class of '75 is in the high school? If not, within three years it is guaranteed that others will realize their presence. There is an abundance of academic, musical, and dramatic talent in their class. Some of these abilities have already been demonstrated through various activities, but it takes time for recognition.

The students serving as class officers are Bob Bloomhuff, President; Suzie Evans, Vice-president; Ann Fitzpatrick, Secretary; and Debbie Riggs, Treasurer.

Senior Class Memories

A Senior holds memories, some happy ones and some sad ones. A Senior has learned a lot during his or her four years in high school. A Senior hopes that he can cope with the problems and responsibilities of college or of holding a job.

Remember the great spit wad fights in 9th grade? Remember how cool a Senior felt when he or she ordered his class rings and when the rings came? How about the tests they took for various colleges? And don't forget how the Seniors will feel the day they leave NHS! The security a Senior felt will be gone. He will be on his own, in college and at work. All the Seniors will be going in different directions, meeting new people and seeking new goals.

Many hours were spent during school, after school, at home, and on weekends working on the production of the 1971-72 Palladium. This was time away from other students and meant giving up a free hour. For Sponsors Mrs. Sandra Cook and Mrs. Helga Guequierre it meant skipping lunch, being at the high school on Saturday mornings, and making extra calls to Powell Studio. For this we give Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Guequierre our thanks.

Members of the yearbook staff are also indebted to Mrs. Mary Ellen Vaydik of Modern Yearbook Company for the encouragement and suggestions she gave us during her weekly visits.

We also thank Mr. Russ Whitehead of Modern Yearbook Company for helping us organize early last fall by teaching layout, copy-writing and picture cropping to new staff members.

The staff also expresses its sincere thanks to Powell Photography Studios for their expert photography and to Hugh Sonk for stepping in at the last minute to help photograph the advertising section.

In conclusion, the Palladium staff wishes to thank the students and faculty for their cooperation. It was only with the help and understanding of these people that the Palladium staff was able to tell the story of Northville High's 1971-1972 school year.

We've So Many Different Ways To Go Fortunes To Seek and Promises To Hold

A time it was . . . Oh what a time it was
A time of innocence and confidence
Times for getting together, moments to share
A time of learning and understanding
Times for peace and quiet and open air
A time that brought many changes to us . . .
Oh, what a time it was.

We've so many different ways to go
Fortunes to seek and promises to hold.
