LOOKING FOR SPACE

LOOKING FOR SPACE

By John Denver

On the road of experience
I'm trying to find my own way
Sometimes I wish that I could fly away
When I think that I'm moving
Suddenly things stand still
I'm afraid 'cause I think they always will

And I'm looking for space
And to find out who I am
And I'm looking to know and understand
It's a sweet, sweet dream
Sometimes I'm almost there
Sometimes I fly like an eagle and
Sometimes I'm deep in despair

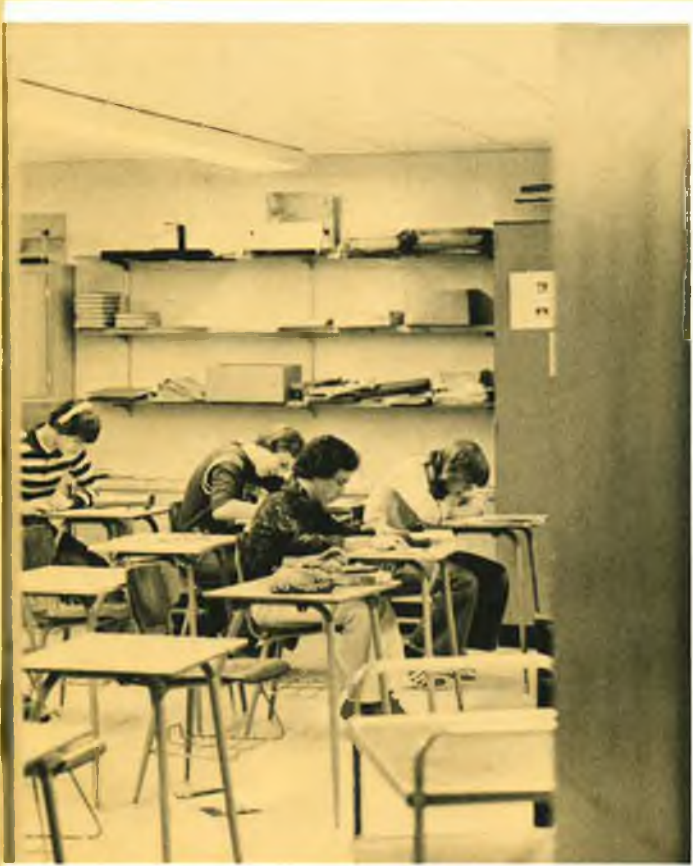

All alone in the universe
Sometimes that's how it seems
I get lost in the sadness and the screams
Then I look in the center
Suddenly everything's clear
I find myself in the sunshine and my dreams

And I'm looking for space
And to find out who I am
And I'm looking to know and understand
It's a sweet, sweet dream
Sometimes I'm almost there
Sometimes I fly like an eagle and
Sometimes I'm deep in despair

On the road of experience
Join in the living day
If there's an answer
It's just that it's just that way

When you're looking for space
And to find out who you are
When you're looking to try and reach the stars
It's a sweet, sweet dream
Sometimes I'm almost there
Sometimes I fly like an eagle and
Sometimes I'm deep in despair

Did you know...

● In Oregon, according to former gov. Tom McCall, since the bottle law has been in effect it has "created employment. The price of beer and softdrinks is not higher... Our roadsides are cleaner... And Oregonians are in landslide approval of the law." If you care:

Vote 'YES' on 'A'

Proposal A was another one of the major issues brought up in the Nov. election. Most of the students at N.H.S. favored the idea of banning throwaway bottles.

With "Royal Gambit", the Drama Club attempted to provide more sophisticated theater to Northville, but drew small audiences in response.

The tragic-comedy followed Henry VIII from his youthful marriage to Catherine of Aragon in the twilight of the Age of Faith, through his personal torment of his annulment and five subsequent marriages with the perilous turmoil in his world governed by his humanistic principles, to his ultimate death and the corresponding decline and fall of the Age of Man in which he lived.

SENIORS

'On the road of experience
I'm trying to find my own way'

As freshmen, the class of '77 breezed into NHS with fresh enthusiasm. Inexperienced in the ways of high school life, the freshmen struggled to overcome the obstacles. After learning the fundamentals, the freshmen fit right in with the hectic pace. Their first year at NHS was shared by Ms. Campbell. The freshmen officers (Steve Crane, Sue Wilkinson, Stacey Wedge, and Beth Harrison) had their hands full trying to learn the ins-and-outs of the bureaucracy. Every year is a year of learning by mistakes; the freshmen year (1973-1974) was no exception. Even as the frosh made mistakes, they knew they wouldn't make them again. That year seems long ago and far away to the senior class of 1977. Many memories seem to cloud the clear recollection of just how it felt to be a freshman at NHS.

During their second year at NHS, the sophomores worked hard to raise money. The sophomore officers (Laurie Day, Beth Harrison and Stacey Wedge) spear-headed the operations. First, in the summer between the freshman and sophomore years, the officers organized a carwash. The class made a substantial amount of money from all the dirty cars in Northville. During the school year students chipped in and helped sell things to help the sophomore class. Mustang buttons, lolly-pops, and Valentine flowers were a few of the things the sophomores sold. The summer between the sophomore and junior years was a busy time for the class of 1977. Besides having the traditional car washes, the class set up a booth at the annual Northville Fair.

The highlight of the junior year was the Junior Prom. The students that attended the prom saw how their money-making ventures paid off. The junior class was pleased with their officers (Mike Murray, Tony Armada, Cathy Foust and Jessica Bacsanyi). The officers helped inspire the rest of the class to work for the Senior Prom. The rest of the junior year was spent raising money by selling magazines and doughnuts. While school was out, another car wash was held, and yet another booth at the Northville Fair was set up. The senior class officers (Mike Murray, Greg Harper, Cathy Foust and Jessica Bacsanyi) set up committees to find the best place, and the best band for the Senior Prom. While the Senior Prom was a big event, the senior trip was also a big happening. Students packed their bags and headed south for the Bahamas or north to Toronto, with the intention of living it up. Every one leaves school with a different emotion. Some are glad to go, others look forward to starting college and meeting new friends. But whatever the emotion, the class of 77 will miss the high school (even if it's only ever so slightly).

Senior Wills

I, BILL BARLOW, being of short mind and even shorter body, do hereby will Joe and Nancy Shmeh a new last name. Something normal like Smith or Jones. To Dana Foster, the ability to reach the pencil sharpener (without a boost). To Sheryl Wissman, another tube of Ben Gay and lots & lots of Ace bandages. To Linda Brownell, the chance to go out. To Frank Bustamante, his very own Pacer pole. To Kathy Carter and Jane Mach, someone with the ability of keep up with the fellow what they're trying to say. And to Jane Mach, I leave my Big Boy Ring, all my blue clothes, many more 6's, 7's, and 9's (not necessarily in that order), my big brother, a begametic with bucket seats.

I, MELINDA J. ROTTA, being of Spirit-filled mind and body, do leave the following to my fellow sisters and brothers:

*To my little sister, Cindy Echols, all the happiness she can obtain during her last year. *To Amy Fitzpatrick, continual success in cheerleading; always keep smiling. *To Senorita Serafa, (Senora Serafa Manschot), I leave the patience to put up with all of the further "Cane mierda" and forever to be happy with Pedro. *To Michelle Annisbigian, my spirit for the Spanish department and the Reflector community. *To Vicky Purcell, I leave Thursday mornings. *To Joe Shaughnessy, the power to recruit millions of people for Vicky so Thursday mornings will be successful. *To Margie Braun, my morning smile and many big hugs and "papa". *To Beso, what can I say? Have Besos. *To Mr. Camen, I leave a pair of overalls. *To Barbie Stewart, I leave Kenny and nothing else for you have everything. *To Mrs. Dwyer, My mouth. *To Frau, a spear to use in all further language wars. Don't let anyone conquer or overthrow our language departments. *To Mrs. Prestel, I leave Andrea Cook, she will take good care of you.

I, TONY ARMADA, with a foreign mind and body, will my season tickets from Mr. Koepke to Doug Harding, to Mrs. Hammond I will 12 of my absnets, I need at least 9 tardies to count as my other 3. To Paul Horst, all the "Hi's" in the halls. To Liz Rider, I will another fantastic lab partner. To Margaret Graham, a replacement brother for both of 'em. To John Howath, "Hi John" and finally to Cher Bourne, I will her my very best of everything.

I KATHY MARSHALL, of sound mind but decaying body, do hereby bequeath Laura Sparling, all my worldly goods left over from High School plus my Parents to add to hers. To Kathy Carter, my Pom-Poms, which were smashed from sitting in her locker for 4 months. To Sally Pawlowski and Valerie Pearson, a case of plastic bottles. To Laura Wilson, a teddybear. To Dave Stec, the ability to work after being toted around in the back of a pickup, deathly ill. To Leify-poo, my ability to pinch peoples cheeks and get away with it, wash dishes, catch poison ivy, and try to call any of your girlfriends more than someone both you and I know. Keep pinching, Leify-poo. To Cari Wedge, I leave one free date with Rob (Florida).

I, CURT HUTCHINSON, being of sound mind and body, do will the following to the following: The black Maverick clan-one driver, one black Maverick, and one train with the cops passing by. To Jane Mach, an exciting short cut to Mumford High School during basketball season. To Nancy Schimpf, the ability to tell when I'm mad, and keep on going to those wild beach parties. To my dear sister, all the impressions I've left on certain teachers and may you have those teachers. To Joe Schimpf, the lawns of woodhill; keep on doing lawn jobs. Also a few extra muscles. To Sheryl Wissman, the bog monster stories, all my bowling scores of 99, constantly, and holding the record for jumping the highest when being scared. To Mr. Osborn, to do a yearbook your way and not to have to take crap from other — holes. To Mr. Spaniol, an electroitic capacitor connected to the seat of your chair. To Mr. Pederson, a small proverb. "May the eternal Hutch Pot hang forever over your head!" To Dana Foster, My sleeping bag shirt; may you enjoy every minute of it. To Linda Brownell, the ability to come up from behind and tickle people without killing them. To Paul Hibbeln, the ability to follow in your brothers footsteps, if you DARE!

I CORKY POWELL, of perverted mind and withered body, will to my brother Rob, a permanent hanger for his ever present hook. To Jane Mach, a new boyfriend for every season (joke Jane) and a bottle of orange smash. To Nancy Schimpf I leave a conscience that will bother her. To Judit Zimmerman, Spanish III and one "Who done it." And last to Sheryl Wissman, I leave the LP - "Devil Woman".

I LINDA ELLISON (Elliblob), being of sound mind and/or sound body, do hereby bequeath all my isosceles triangles to Sue Gegjoff. To Frank Bustamante, all the "Auh's" his heart can hold. To the rest of the school, I will my great da-da mind and finally to Mr. White I say "This is America" (ha-ha). To Mr. McCulloch, a fingernail clipper.

I, MARCIA ANN SLABEY (Marcy), being of sound mind and active body, do hereby will Sue Gegjoff one night in Hamel's parking lot with Gordie Merrit because of her everlasting love for him, I also will my beloved Cougar to anybody who wants it. I will Sue, Barb, and Sandy, the ability to learn how to cruise Telegraph and also the back hill. To Frank "Ahhhhh....." Bustamante, I will a box of throat lozenges to keep your voice running smooth. From Diane and me, we will Mr. D, a bottle of T. J. Swan. To Mr. White, a good life with Wilma and Pebbles. And to the Juniors, a Senior year as great as mine.

I, ESTHER FOUNTAIN, will the following classes 78, 79, 80 the most carefree years to remember N.H.S. by.

I, BRIAN ROSS, leave my best younger friend Steve, my way with women, and my younger Brother, all the luck in the world in driving. P.S. Good Luck, Amy and Julie.

I, DOUG HENNINGSEN, being of perverted mind and body, hereby leave my followers the following: To Tim Lee, I willingly leave you Ms. Foltyn and P&A Theater. To Keith M. Spigarelli, I leave a mowling ball to help raise that 113 average. To Joe Stud (Troy S.) I leave all my accounting II tests for next year. To the Mo Men (Tim Doyle, Mike Havalala, Dan Thomas, Bobby G.) I leave a full color, lifesize, 3D picture of the unknown man. I, SHARON BRODERICK, of sound mind and body will Jim Weston, another partner who bugs and talks as much as I do. To Ski, a new mouth so she may learn how to say nice things to people. To Donna Korte, a pack of Big Red gum. To Lisa Raycraft, that someone who will bug her this year during track, as she did to me last year. To debbie Korte, that she may learn when and when not to give her number out. To Nancy Schlacter, a supply of Gum to last her the rest of her school years, also a new vocabulary, better than the other one. To Karen Stevens, the will stop bugging me for gum and get her own. Last but not least, Puddles - all the luck and happiness that can be offered.

I, DEBBIE KORTE, being of sound mind and body, hereby will to my brother Tom, a Schick double edge razor with Gillette baby face shaving cream and a fist in the jaw. To my cousin, Al, I will all the radiators and his own personalized set of gold numbers from one to ten. To "big red" I will all my basketball abilities and Plymouth Canton games. To John Ligon, I will Farah Fawcett-Majors and a half of dozen stupid shirts. To Julie McDaniel, I will all the Pink Panther cartoons and movies.

I, DIANE ARQUETTE (Arkel), being of no mind and even less body, will to my sister Beth, all my long hard hours of study so she won't have to in her final year. To Sue, I will the Gordie Merrit to do with what she pleases, no matter what it may be. To Gordie, I will a brand new mail box with all the trimmings because Marcy didn't mean to knock it down in the first place. To all the rest of the Juniors and Sophomores, I will common sense enough to get out of this school while you still have the chance.

I, STACEY WEDGE, being of somewhat sound mind and body, leave to my sister Cari, the bathroom in the morning so you don't have to take turns, and all the luck in the future. To Nancy Schimpf, a lifetime supply of Custard Time lemon slush. To Jane Mach, a personalized coat hanger in case you lock the keys in the car. To Joannie Davis, a large quantity of Spaghetti, a life jacket for Prudence for those times in the sail boat and a large chocolate cone to shove in someone's face (take care)! To Kathy Carter, a tape recorder so someone will listen to all your problems about??? To Amy Armstrong, thanks for Linda-bells famous dinners and good luck.

I, JAN KALOTA, do hereby will Michelle Moulds, my special talent of dropping my baton. To Judy Zimmerman and the N.H.S. band, I will one trout face. I also will one box of pins to Tim Johnson and the drama department. To Mark Yanoschick, I will my brothers to make him crazier than he is.

We, MAW, CAB, and CEB, do hereby bequeath to all future N.H.S. Rah Rah girls, each and every one, a pair of bionic hands (with fingers already stuck together) to enable more rapid and fluent speech. Also, a lifetime supply of poly-grip to preserve those plastic smiles in old age. . . . Rah! . . . Rah!

I, BETH KATZBECK, do hereby bequeath the following items to a few of my underclassmen friends. To Margie Braun and Tami Lee, two identical muzzles, to Cindie Gears, a lifetime supply of matches, to Robyn Bell, a new pair of WHITE tennis shoes, to Tommy Westfall and Ron Lane, a refreshers course in drivers ed. PoSo to la senorita bonbida, I leave "un gran beso".

I, CAROL MEEK, being of sound mind and busy body, do hereby leave one bottle of vodka to Karen Gendelis and Carole Spiker plus seven Clarenceville girls to tear up as they wish. To Debbie LaValley, I leave all my sensuous ways, also, to Larry, Joe, Jim, Christ, Rob and Eve. To Willie Worm, I leave one fulfilled 5th hour. To Barron, Romine, Doheney, Hawk, both of the Ketrners and the rest of their gang, I leave one weekend of very HEAVY partying. I leave to Hawk, a license so that she can drive legally. To Julie Babich, I leave 10 hamburgers without, to go. To Tom, Steve, Bob and Bart, I leave one mass rush.

I, TERRI SMITH, hereby will to my brother, Troy Smith, a successful senior year and a date with the girl of his dreams. To Dave Massel, I will another evening of pop, pretzels and television.

I, SHARON PASCOE, being of half mind and short body, hereby leave the rest of the short people to come, the benefits of looking at the ceilings to find their way to class. To my cuz, Linda, I leave her a guy that shall never leave her side but never touch her. I also will to my little cousin, Mariann, the priviledges to be able to leave the house for the Homecomings to come. I leave to Mike (a sweet guy) the priviledges of walking around on two legs instead of hopping on one. Lastly, I leave to Paul all the great football plays to come. I wish the people good luck or strong nerves to be able to stand it here.

I, PETER Y. DANIELS, being of semi-sound mind and a muscular (?) body, do hereby will to all the teachers who gave me undeservedly low grades, my brother Robert (I told you I'd get you back one day!) To my brother Robert (Twinkie) I will you my way with women (since I had none). To Frau, I will my copy of "Mein Kampf" even though, after being in one of her classes, I'm sure she already has one. To Danell, I leave my chemistry books, even though you don't need them. To Sheri, I leave J.W. and J.T. And to Mr. Kinde, I leave many thanks. Amen and Good Riddance.

I, LLOYD ROSS, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave all my facial hair to Leif Romberg. To Kathy Whalen, I leave all my athletic and sporting skills and I give all my advanced swimming techniques to John Pawlowski. To Charlie Cassidy, I leave a booklet of instructions on how to build a speedboat within a year. An finally, I leave my most prized possession of all, a dependable, maintenance-free, CLASSIC "64" Riviera to Darren McVeigh and Bill Womack.

I, BARB SIELKY, hereby leave Sherry Kaiponen a "lucky" Ducky, to Amy Palmer, a weekend with Wally Gator, to Linda Potter, I will 10 more guys, when you've got it, flaunt it, to Ken Gratton, the chance to let out some more hot air, to Kathy Reinholz, a T-shirt that says "Jockette", to Cathy Herbel, a new pair of pajamas, to Sharon Broderick, the chance to make your laugh well known. To Mrs. Gorshak, my ability to ask for a raise. And to the class of "78", a chance to get to know everyone, including the people who are in the "Group". Don't put people on a pedestal, because they're no better than anyone else.

I, DAVE SETTLES, hereby will upon future seniors at N.H.S. the "Fun and enjoyment" of the summer vacation during the entire school year and to Tim Wilson and Steven Dragon, I pledge onto them my magnificent driving skills.

I, GREG McFADDEN, being - - - leave Doug Castillo a forehead and Kathy Carter an extra pair of ears so that she can hear herself. I leave Joe Schimpf two muscular arms. To Sheryl Wissman, I leave a temper because she has none. I leave Jane Mach with the memories of fun times at Elias Brothers, to Nancy Schimpf, who has everything, I simply admire her ability to know how I really feel, and to Coach Simpson, I leave my mind. I, SUE STEC, being of sound mind and small body, will to Linda, all the luck in the world with Ken: Candy, a date that last forever; to Jeannie, one night of holy terror and the will to not run away; to Marj, 2,000 gallons of gas for all the rides home and my thanks to Bob for putting up with it; to my brother, Dave, tickets to all N.H.S. football games and many more rides to work from Mayberry Park; to Mr. Koepke and Mr. McCloud, the world's second best typist for after I leave; to Leif and Kurt, a lifetime supply of beer; to Cindy, many more blind dates on your birthday; and to all underclassmen, I will good luck and happiness in the future.

I, RON HIBBELN, being of Mindless body, will to my oldest, closest, and best friends, the things I keep nearest my heart, three smelly greasy undershirts: worn alternately through four years of high school. To my brother, Paul, I leave my ability to "conquer all", including bucket seats. Sorry Paul, I'd leave you more, but some things just come natural. To Jane Mach, I leave two of my closest friends to squeeze the rabbit next time she decides to bake chocolate chip cookies. To Nancy Schimpf, I will my ability to stay clam, even when bright lights make you nervous. Also, my skill at getting lots of sleep on warm summer nights. OH, by the way, do you like sitting on the dark? And to Nancy's brother Joe, I leave a mouthful of loose teeth if he ever barges in again. I'd leave something to Corky Powell but she's a senior. And besides she doesn't deserve to be left anything anyway.

I, TAMI HURLEY, being of little else, hereby do will Linda Brownell my little brother and an afternoon at a football game that she understands. To Sheri Brown, I leave a green carnation in the right hands. To Danell Bergstrom, I will my over-used tear-ducts, so she can cry as much for me as she did for Randy. To Jane Mach, I leave Rudy Jordache - then again, maybe I won't. (Tell you what, Jane, you can keep the smile, and I'll take the eyes!) To Mr. Townsley, I leave a wild Irish Rose and a lifelong membership to the

IRA. To Mr. White, I leave a bonafied copy of "Ms. Rolli's Theorem". To my little (?) brother, Mike, I leave a whole new wardrobe - and breakfast. To Bob, I leave a little butter-scotch... maybe. To all of N.H.S. I LEAVE!! I, CINDY MAPES, being of somewhat sound mind and body, hereby will to Matthew Davis, my ability to drink and a 6-pack of Hires. I, LEA ANN McELROY, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will the following to John Eltinge, I leave all my unsolved Calculus problems and a year of walking to the bus stop alone. To Jim Beaber, I leave all my missed notes. To Tim Johnson, Bill Lockwood, and Tim Miner, I leave my racing helmet and a set of car keys. To next year's Varsity Cheerleading Squad, I leave two words, "Good luck" Lastly, to Cher Bourne, I leave all the luck I possess for a fantastic senior year.

I, DARLENE FOSTER, being of sound mind and body, will to the following: To my little sister Dana, all the luck in the world you need and more. To Nancy Schimpf, all the bottles of Champagne you can handle for under the bleachers. To Jane Mach, the ability to stay out of the backseat of a black Maverick, and also your favorite saying, "Alright, everybody out!" Don't kill me Jane. Oh yea, an extra set of car keys, too. To Eric Reinholz, I leave one last punch, from me to you this time. I'll get ya Eric! To Lisa Hutchinson, another person you can coach. Thanks! I don't think it worked though. To Amy Armstrong, I leave your own counselor so you don't have to listen to everyone else's problems, such as, guess who? To Brian Faustyn, "How's it going Sam?!" (SAM?) I leave my ability to stay sober at least one Friday night. To Al Korte, I leave someone else who you can tease about a broken hip. Don't worry Al, mine is doing fine. To Rob Powell, I leave all the many women he has always wanted to take out.

I, MIKE MURRAY, being of perverted mind and wasted body, do hereby will to Scott McMillin, all of the glorious Mondays spent at the printer. To Matt Sullivan, a bar of Coast to go with his breaststroke. To Steve Pyatt, the satisfaction of knowing he's No. 1 (Just like Chip). To Uncle Walt, a new assistant coach, (Only temporary, because I'll be back to take your job in 4 years). To Bizarre, a tall, dark, and handsome male. To Bri-ane, all the happiness in the world. (The smaller hat size was worth it.)

I, TAD TAGGERT, being of sound mind and half body, do hereby will Jim Bedford, a one-way ticket to the Polar Relays. To John Coram, the ability to walk without hurting himself. To Brian Turnbull, I leave a pair of track shoes with rubber spikes in them to get him out of the habit of bending track spikes. To Doug Cook, I leave a gold plated Drafting tube with a mink lining. To Cher Bourne, I leave everything that everyone else didn't leave her. To Mr. Spear, who I highly respect, I leave the next school year. And finally, I leave Pork, Pie and Pie, I leave Pork.

I, THIERRY ANDRE DECHAPE, being of French mind and body, have a few things to bequesth to the following institutions. To NHS and all (well almost all) of my teachers, especially Ron, John, Mike and Jack, I leave all the good luck and good years that I can spare, with my sister thrown in on the side. To my friends, I will try to leave enough common sense, to grow-up, quit fondling themselves, get an education, and find some lady friends. This is toad signing off, au revoir, mes amis et bonne chance.

I, PAULA LEMON, being of sound mind and body, leave to Hawk, all the kips I never used. To Romine, Doheny, Kelters, and the rest of the gang, a week free of school to recuperate from the weekend of partying that Meek gave them. To Karen J., I leave a couple more heavy dates with C.C. To Mr. Camen, I leave I pair of high waisted pants. To Carole Spiker, I leave more of the good times at the pits, to always be a tooshie Queen, a date with the Natural Man winner, and a car of your own choice to drive around in. To Eric, I leave all my love.

I, KATHY MOCK, being of somewhat sound mind and body, do will to Carol Wallace, my ability to hold more than I beer.

I, SHERRIE KAIPONEN do hereby will Barb Sielky, the $10.00 she wanted so badly, the T of her dreams, and my whistle. To Ken Gratton, my corner. To Kathy Reinholz, my red nail polish since she liked it so much and another chance to "Sink in the Shaking Car". To Linda Potter, a pillar-patter, a decent laugh and another set construction to watch the Pro with a hammer in hand. To Debbie Curl, alias S.S., my tennis racket. To Mark Kramer, an inch of my shortness. To the remaining tennis team, another great year especially at Ann Arbor, and extra luck to Karin, Paula, Maria and Laura. To Sonya Prystash, a nose that doesn't wiggle when she laughs. To Cathy Herbel, a bus driver that leaves the door open and my great cheerleading ways. To Sharon Pascoe, a kick in the -- --!!! so she can learn to keep her big mouth shut and not hurt peoples feelings. And finally, to Amy Palmer, my levis all the time the time she wants with Wally-gator, plus my excellent quick comments and my kind understanding.

I, CAROLYN CALMES, leave two lbs. of Choline deficient diet and two lbs. of Choline enriched diet (along with a great deal of thanks) to Mr. John Edwards. To Mr. Ron Meteyer, I leave 3 dirty mouse cages and a bottle of "Eau de Mouse" after shave.

I, GREG HARPER, being of sound mind and body, will to Mr. Koepke, one over cushioned bench pad. To Doug Harding, one unbreakable "Q". To my brother, Marky, a bottle of antacide tablets and my clothes to borrow. To Doug Marzonie, a ride to school every day. To Pete Wright, my ability to hold.

We, ADELL HUNSINGER and MARY KNIGHT, also known affectionately as Cheech and Chong, being of questionable minds and fantastic (?) bodies, do hereby will the following: To our favorite librarian, Corrine, we will a bottle for her locker and an endless supply of carnations for those special occasions. To Mary, a lifetime membership to Vic Tanny and secrets of a successful diet. To Andra, a truckload of yogurt to do with as she pleases and last but not least, to Ms. Bubel, one candy bar and four levels of XBX.

I, MIKE McCONLOGUE of Ape-Like body and brainless mind, leave a box of Kleenex to Dan Thomas, a new edition of the MO dictionary to Tim Doyle, and a new set of Hooks to Bob Gerber. My nickname of Sasquach to Tim Doyle, and all my Elton John albums to Greg Cole - he always wanted to buy them but now they're free. And last by not least, a new head-a-hair for Mike Havalta. I, DEBBIE McGUIRE, being of corrupt mind and weal body, do hereby will the following: Christ Suddendorf, my best pink dress. Sheryl DeHoff, my favorite boy "bean". To Diana Perpich, my sincere hope that you never change and to Kim Kratz, the ability to set records on the phone and my tube with all the angles.

I, RICK BISCHOFF, being of almost sound mind and a definitely not sound body do hereby will to Cher Bourne, "my best" since Tony wouldn't be able to give it to you. To Scott McMillan, I will my finely polished seat on the bench next to Uncle Walt. To Cheryl DeHoff, I will a new football, a bigger slide to choo-choo, a Saturday night without her parents and finally, my ability to play crazy eights. Finally and definitely not the least, I will the presidency of the Loser's Club to Uncle Walt.

I, LAURIE SMIGIELSKI, better known as Smig, do hereby leave the following worthless items to the following worthless people: To Diane Weegie, I leave my eyes - since one is open most of the time. To Eddie Olah, Olah, Olah, my couch to fall off of whenever he tells a good polack joke. To Janet Eisele, a festival so she can do it again. To Nancy Leahy, my Grammy - complete with Rod Stewart's "Night on the Town" and also half of what I know about Elton John. To Gay-L-Rice, a beanbag chair and a bathtub to fill, a smoking Doctor Pepper, and another party with Mama Lyn. To Rickie Kennedy, some of my ugliness so he won't be so cute! To my favorite teacher, Mr. White, I leave my book, "Polish Women in History". To Ms. Kelly, my one vote for the ERA. To Joni McAbee, the other half of what I know about Elton, and memories of a great concert. To Leigh Anderson, a date with Gavy with no hickeys, no tiffs, and no 2:00-sis. And last and of course least, to Julie Cher. B., B's car, and another great night at Kensington.

I, RICK MARRONE, being of sound mind and body do hereby will the following: To "Howie" I will some speed, not mine because I don't have any, and some money so he never has to keep thinking of dumb ideas to make money. To Julie Hubbard, I will Bill Piccolo: hope you get him. To my sisters, Kathy and Lisa, I will them good times in high school like the ones that I have had. To that one special person I leave her the ring I never gave her, my dorm address so she can visit me, and all my love. To Doug Harding, I leave the so-called "glamorous and exciting" job of fullback, not so glamorous though because all you'll ever do is block.

I, DOUG STEELE, being of sound mind and no comment on the body, will to Joe Schimpf, all the pictures in my locker and my ability to buy at the age of sixteen. To Nancy Schimpf, five minutes. To Rob Powell, my gigantic ego and one good punch. I leave Dana Foster, all the good times we had together (?) To Linda Brownell, I leave two rides on the zipper, one frilly ash tray, long phone calls and a robe tie. To Jane Mach, I leave three free soccer games, one bent hanger and a smaller tent for better privacy. I will Darlene Foster white shorts, flowers and whipped cream because in my heart she will always be an underclassman, and to Sheryl Wissman, I leave a phone cord, a canoe trip and my body. I hope she enjoys it.

I, AMY PALMER, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following: to my sister Denise, a great Senior year. It's only what you make it. To Lisa B. someone who will (not) only take advantage of your mind. To Barb S. the Tim of your choice. To Julie A., the bus ride to Plymouth (which you took more than I did), a 0 in citizenship, the things we learned, and the walk home. To Linda P., a college where there are 14 guys for every 1 girl. You can handle it. To Ken G., a third year of Accounting. To Mark K., a new topic for your Comp. papers. To Kathy R., power steering in your car and a free push the next time your car dies. It's cheaper than paying for a tow you must admit. And to Sherrie K., a lot of things happened after you turned in your will but I think that we will still be friends 10 years from now. In the meantime, I wish you the 3 L's: Love, Life & Luck. In any order that you want them. We cannot go back, but we can go ahead. Thank you for our friendship.

While in good health, and with my mind still (?) strong and innocent as a Viking's (influenced only to a certain extent by the Coca Cola-culture) I, ANDERS BENGTSOON am willing to the following people these things: To the coolest kid in the school, Kevin Corcoran, I will my biggest and darkest closet's a year's subscription to the magazine, "How to Become a Better Photographer". The book "50 Ways to Keep From Smiling When Playing Basketball" (by Dave Brewer) and a pair of high-heel boots are my gifts to Steve "more jokes" Hudolin. To show my appreciation for all the responsibility and pride he has taken in his job as a manager, I will my old broom and a set of water bottles to Brett. The award "Cher leader of the Year" will be given to Tony Armada. (Thanks for all the nasty words you taught me!) To keep Greg "Don Juan" Harper in shape, even after high school, I will my private harem of Swedish girls to him. My last dollars shall go to a haircut for Tim Conder. All my unsolved storyproblems are meant to be returned to Mr. White with wishes of many happy years of teaching "kid-stuff" to new generation of "animals and Jocks". If Mr. Koepke has the endurance to keep on coaching the Varsity Basketball team, I'd like to give him a lot of patience and a jar of Aspirin (Dose: 2 pills before every game and the rest of the jar when looking on the final season record). To Amy Vargo I will 5 inches of my height. To the rest of my friends I'd like to say thanks for all happy moments together, and I wish you all good luck in the future.

I, JOHN BROWN, being of somewhat abnormal mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following: To Mr. Tarpinian, the new gym. To Mrs. Campbell, lots and lots of money for doing nothing. To Mr. Spear, the ability to raise his standards and be a mediocre superintendent. To Mr. Osborn, 300,000 rolls of film. To Rob Powell, a fifth of Shmirnoffs . . . don't drink it all at once, kiddo. To Lance Carter, puberty. To Greg Bach, ability to hit back (you chicken!) To Stoney Bruce, a hot night at "Jeanette's" for his Senior Prom. To Al Schuerholz, the ability to play trombone just like Norm. To Phil Shed, Lots of P.T.C. To Dana Foster, height. To Lori Young, a roll of masking tape to wrap around her overly-abundant mouth and a cozy little darkroom somewhere quiet. And last but not least, to all up-coming underclassmen, all the fun, sick, and sometimes obscene experiences I have had on the hill.

I, STEVE HUDOLIN, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will the following: To Mr. Townsley, another sweater. To Luigi Folino, my basketball abilities, if you can find any. To Ms. Dorrian, a strong, macho man to pull down the screen in Humanities. To Nancy Schimpf, another haircut. To John Horwath, a large hat for his swollen head. To Uncle Walt, a trip to the zoo to see his other relatives.

I, KIM ZABELL, of sound mind and body, will my car to Vicki Witek along with a set of extra windows and Northville Collision. I will Terri, all of Burger Chef and a Sears 10 speed bike. To Beth and Vicki, I will an ice cream cone and nothing to do. To Mike, I will my glasses when he forgets his and Vicki too. I will to Jill, 10 free skip days in Liley's class and Mr. Koepke. The remaining of my earthly goods. I give to Lisa, including a locker with Strawberries.

I, CLAUDIA RIEGNER, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will Mark Yonoschik, the ability to sing the "Snack-N-Cake" song. To Laura Sparling, 3 easy lessons on how to ride a unicycle and an everlasting make-up brush. To Paula Horst and Karen Lotarski, a year's supply of Applesauce Donut Powder and 25 more excuses to give to Uta. To Doug Marzonie, a sewing kit for those embarrassing moments of split seams. To Mark Harper, all my Spanish notes and a 3 year membership to Playgirl. And last to my two little sisters, Audrey and Shirely, a successful journey through NHS and may you both find as much happiness and as many memorable times as I did.

I, RAY ALLEN, being of smart mind and body, will to Diane Miller, two long years with Mike McCarthy. To Mike, two more years of school. To Brad Langfield, all the trouble he got me into and to his sister, two more fun years in this school.

I, CATHY FOST, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath to L.S. all the B.S. she can hold. To Trinky Platte, a 2nd birthday, this year to make-up for the way she spent her 1st one, and my ability to swim backstroke (HA!) To Bruce Hackman, a membership in the CPAC (Chauvanists Pigs of America Club). To Paula Horst, a dry pair of tennis panties. To Carol McLaughlin (Alias Bazaar Brain) a car of her own so she doesn't have to make those long walks home after swim practice. To Vida Mikalonis a lifetime supply of cigars and to Mark Yanoschik, a date with Mrs. P.

I, KENNETH LANDSTROM II, leave to Kim VanKempen, all the Love I couldn't give her while I was here . . . To Mr. Spear, I leave my auto shop tool box so he can fix the $1700 in damages to his car . . . An to my little brother, Dan, I leave a colorful assortment of Bandanas to hold his head together through his senior year.

I, NATALIE FOLINO, being of somewhat sound mind and body, leave to my dear friend Joannie, a pair of red tennis shoes to wear with your best outfit, a brown paper bag to put over your head on Monday's after all those week-end parties, a 45 r.p.m. record of "I'm in Love with My Car" and a great senior year (hope it matches your freshman year). To John Marzonie, the ability not to make a fool of himself when he's not in the right state of mind. Good Luck to the both of you! I, CATHY HERBEL, being of sound mind and body hereby will to Dave (alias "Richie") a rainy ELO concert, a few lessons on "how to play tennis" and a couple of new buddies instead of Patsie and Ralph (right Joe and Ray?) To my fellow parliers, Laura, Judy, Diane and Debbie, I leave my sacred Scavenger and Treasure Hunts — maybe next time Laura and Judy will get "goosed". Finally, I leave Margot, 6 more inches to grow and Cheryl a vote for 1979 Homecoming Queen. To Maria, I leave an eternal "Guten-tag" every morning and a new tennis racket. To Bob, I will an exclusive membership to his "foxy fan club" and a few more autographs to place upon his bedroom walls.

I, JEAN WILSON, leave to Leslie, 12 Poohskers, B.M. I³ II, and her own car to be ill in, to Dana, a new major dress, to Clark, 6 inches and 6 lbs., to Shana, only the lbs., to Jenny, 3 pks. of Leggs, and to Denise, 2 rolls of skinny white tape and my place as drum section leader — HAVE FUN!

I, KAREN ASSENMACHER, being of perverted mind and a body (not any special body, just your average run-of-the-mill body), will to all juniors who are able to handle it, all the skates, vo-de-o-dos, and dun-na-las used over the years by yours truly. (For those of you that don't know what that last line meant, well, you're not missing much.) I also will to my brother, Keith, the brains never to come back to this school.

I, MARY VALLANCE, being of reasonably normal mind and body, do hereby will to my sweet, kind, and generous brother, Bob, my best wishes for lots of homework next year, and enough courage to ask out the "little lady of his dreams!" To my good friend Natalie Snyder, I hereby will another hazardous year of riding our bus. Now after many years of hard work that have warped my sense of humor, I hereby declare that I will retire from Northville High in peace.

I, ELIZABETH ANN WARD, being of sound mind and body, hereby leave to Timmy what was left to me. Hey, "kid", the "Board's yours!" To Michael, I will a paperback copy of Girl's Can Be Fun. To Willie, another Jazz Flutist. To K., another all-purpose handy-person. And to the next Student Congress, I wish you good luck.

I, MARGORIE BOHN, of sound mind and body, leave to Carolyn Bohn, my straighter hair. To Amy Lincoln, I leave my pink room, except for weekends. To Jim Carmichael, immunity to Bob's jokes and to Laura Wilson, I leave my ability to put up with Leif.

I, SHIRLEY GHANNAM, do hereby bequeath to Mr. White my only form of transportation, my "Camel".

The people that I include in my will are my closest and dearest friends. They mean a lot to me and I won't forget them. To Mary Bellmore, I leave fond memories of my Junior year, the good times we had, and my Bullitt roach clip. To Debbie Milley, I leave my 4 way interchangeable pipe. To George Dygert, Brian Ludascher, and Kevin Jones, I leave all my partying supplies since they're such heavy partyers. To Lee Sowders, I leave my drum stick. These are just a few things for my good and true friends to remember me by. BRUCE KEYES.

I, THERESA FOLINO, being of sound mind and body, hereby will to Mr. Greg Camen, a navy blue pair of high waist pants. To Chris Campbell, I leave the image of his brother, heart-breaker and party goer. To Mr. K. Kinde, the ability to be organized. To Mr. Williams a voice so he can sing with the choir, not against it. To Mr. Emerson, my famous "FoFo Folino Factor". To all the Old Mill Gang, enjoy. To Jill Boyd, who found her thrill on Strawberry Hill at 17, the memory of it forever. To Aunt Mindi, I leave Fr. Vince. To Uncle Tom, all the stars in the sky to sell. To Mr. R. N. White, all the future Folinos. To all my teachers and counselors, THANKS, FOR HELPING ME MAKE IT THROUGH. Last but not least to all the future

Ville students. GOOD LUCK!

I, KATHY REINHOLZ, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave: To my brother Eric, two more good years at this school. To Pam B. all the skips that I didn't use (think that will last you through your senior year, Pam?) To Mark VanNgen, I leave all my good driving skills (hey A.J.!) To Nancy Schimpf, I leave one smaller rock from the Rocky Mountains, and to Jane Mach, I will my car which hopefully runs better than the one you are driving now. (Hope you get a Mach II soon Jane.)

I, DEBBIE MARTIN, will my two dear sisters. The Northville "High" School. To Gordie Davis, another fish to condemn with. To Kathy Goodwin, a little orange Bug that has a lot of mirrors. To Cindy Pratt, friendship that we remember, mistakes that we regret and the growing pains of carefree childhood. To Jenny King, Life itself, impossible, indispensable, intolerable. If you can expect those then you can smile at anything. To Elaine Sarcewich, ALL the confidence in the world. I, SHARON SCHULTZ, leave my brother, Doug, coleslaw (direct from Florida). To Doug and Sally Nair, I leave hopes that their chemistry class will be as thrilling (?) as mine (with sing-alongs in the back row.)

I, JOAN WALTON, being of definitely unsound mind, do hereby leave to Frau, another student with a perfect attendance record like mine. To Michelle Anusbigan, another class with Ms. LeBoeuf and to Richard Bookwalter, my green shirt.

I, BOB SULLIVAN, of sound mind and body, leave to Jim Carmichael a deep voice and a pair of platform shoes. To Steve Lindemeier, my girlfriend, Marjorie, and to Amy Lincoln, I leave Art Black.

I, SCOTT SPEAR, being of mound mind and soddy body . . . do hereby undo bequeath forthwith . . . one Mt. Gruntman, for the eternal Colorado Gruntward Bound Studs (C.G.B.S.) to climb Onward, Upward, and Outward . . . BOUND!!

I, LISA BILINSKY, hereby bequeath the following things to my friends: Julie Anderson, I leave a weekend trip up north to you. Amy Palmer, on her 18th birthday, will receive "Joe Cool" along with an instruction booklet. Pam Roberts, I leave you our "big boy" plus many more through your life. Cathy (Cassy) Herbel, I leave you D.D. and all our fond memories of him. I leave these things to everyone: love, happiness, and peace of mind. (Sorry Sheri B., JJ is NOT included in the love and happiness package.)

I, CINDY BERARDI, the problem advisor, will Judy Landau all my advice and the person in your life, Mitch, and many more good times. To my dear? sweet? brother, Mike, I will a bike (what's left of it!). To Mr. Camen, 2 years of my complaints along with our group's conversations (Judy, Barb, Anne and Me) to keep you from teaching. To Donna Korte, I told you I wouldn't forget you! I will you all the guys in the band from Ohio. They're waiting for you, Donna! Mr. Oz (Dağ), a lifetime supply coupon for jelly-stick donuts. To Sue Stec, all the good luck during your competitions. To Linda Potter, I will you all the 22 mile walks that we have taken. Although we got elephantitis on the way, the Florida Sunshine was with us. To Barb, another weekend retreat. To Sharon Pascoe, all my opera songs from the football games.

I, DAVID "BREW" BREWER, will to my best friend's sister, Dana, a smaller mouth and a bigger body. Although it's too late, I will to Don DiComo the ability to shut up once in awhile. To Uncle Walt, I leave a portable razor and my ability to block out so well. To Marc Hooth, I leave my position, who I know will play it better than me because he already has. To my best friend, Darlene, nothing, because she is perfect the way she is. But if I could I would give her the rest of my life, which I know she would like. (HAHA) Finally, I will a hole in the head to each one of the Hotshots on the Basketball team (past and future) to deflate their egos.

I, STEVE MASSEL, being of perverted mind and long arms, bequeath to Wendy T. and Annette B. a six pack to go with the carton, to Nancy Sailor a lot of parties, to Kathy Setles, a picture of C.H., to Elaine Hinman, the book "Principles of Democracy" by Carl Marx; to Phil Mao, my broken arrow; to Dave, I leave Sue S.; to Mary Hartmann, a lifetime supply of friendly Cola; to Beaver a new set of teeth; to Bob, 8-track tapes of his own; to Julie a box of band-aids for basketball season; To Wendy N. another cabin meeting at camp, and to Frex, a pound bag of M&M's. I, SHARON PASCOE, being of half mind and short body, now hereby bequeath to Mariann the privilege of being able to get out of the house for the future Homecomings (Good Luck to you.) To my tall, husky cuz, Linda, I leave the ability to catch them and never let them go. To Mike I leave the hard-to-get ability of walking on two feet instead of hopping (wish ya luck, accident prone). To my friend and fellow worker, "is", the ability I have in filing checks, don't ever lose your touch. I leave Gary, the world's supply of Frankenstein shoes (shorty). Also I leave the class of '78 the ability to make it through without a scratch.

I, SONYA E. PRYSTASH, being of phenomenal brain and brawn, hereby will to Northville High School a student exactly like myself, who shall come in like a lamb and leave with a roar. To Mr. Edwards, I present my brain for him to dissect and find out why I got all those 100's in Advanced Biology. I also leave him my ability at distinguishing between clockwise and counter-clockwise and the book: 1001 Brain Teasers. To Mr. Osborn, I leave a case of M&M's, and a new Student Life editor as capable (?) as I am. To Ms. Dorrian, I leave my personelf thanks for all her pressuring and demands. And, to all the teachers at NHS, especially Mr. Apap, I leave those questions, forever etched in their minds, that I had to ask. To those people, with whom I've attended many classes, I present the following: A football game, during which torrential rains occur to Chip Chamberlain. An extra-large skull cap, the title of having the best legs and the cutest feet, and Lisa Willoughby to John Eltinge. A pair of corduroy overalls to wear each Friday to Bob (Twinkie) Daniels. A deviated septum and the statement, "It must be Friday!" to Morgan Wheaton. The movie, "A Touch of Class", my mothers compliments and a Precalculus book to demonically peel the plastic off of to Carolyn Calmes. A sigh of relief that there's no more Debate to all the former team members. A dictionary of my personal English to Richard Bookwalter. A wardrobe of solid-color clothes and Frau herself to Andy Bemish. A surprise visit to his Berlin Home to Martin Sauer. Lastly, to my friend of all friends during these past four years, I leave to Linda Potter, a school where only "Foxy" guys attend . . . the paradox of being the same yet different, all those serious talks, a group of friends like Cathy Herbel, Lisa Bilinsky, Julie Weyburne, Julie Anderson, Barb Sielky, Sherrie Kaiponen and the rest, and the realization of her goals. To those many people I haven't mentioned, I leave the promise of not being forgotten (especially Mr. Dent) and if I don't remember the face, I'll be certain to remember the heart beneath. "Farewell! Wherever you fare, till your eyries receive you at the journey's end!"

I, BOB SWEENEY, being of assorted molecules and innerds, no thanks to anyone buy my parents, leave the following to the remaining suckers and/or administration of this institution: To Mr. Tarpinian, the knowledge and gumption to recite the 14th and 15th letters of the alphabet, consecutively without a notion of its result. To Mr. Spear, I leave menial labor (or the office of Superintendent of a school district). To Phil Reed, someone or something to give him a purpose in life. To Mr. Deskovitz, a 6 hour day. To those who will register in the future, an appointment with Mr. Spear to get any class you want. To the track team, 440 intervals, or a Galway course. To Ralph Redmond, a neurotic editor-in-chief and 4000 quarter-milers. To Bilbo, Normu, Hutch-Butt Plain-Jane, Dar and Kathy, someone, to be taller than you in your future life. I, RENEED McDONALD, will to my brother Mark; a truckload of little black books, and his own private phone. To Dawn (Scrubby-bubbles), I leave a pair of Streaker tennies. I, MARGARET RENAUD, being of perverted mind and delapidated body, bequeath to Patti K. one pair of blue tennis shoes, and a guy to help you get them on; to Julie McDaniel, a perfect method of passing through the defense; to Miss Pat Bubel, all the calories in a large pizza, and an endless supply of 12 minute-runs, and to Senorita Bonita ("a") a wall hanging reading "I have a question for you", & to all the underclassmen "Good Luck".

I, MARY KNIGHT, being of perverted mind and unproportioned body, do hereby bequeath the following: To Elaine, an endless supply of "hi's". To Julie, a winning senior basketball team and a guy with a whistle like Keith's. To Diane Kleckner, Cindy Bull, I will the titles of Valedictorian and Salutatorian of the class of '78 to divide as they please. To Mr. Koepke, 10 guys over 6'5" and a winning season for his team. To Ms. Dorrian, one vacation without a student to interrupt it; and to Patty (P.K.) one guy and one back-seat to do with as she pleases (go to it!).

I, JEANNIE BURKHARDT, being of no mind and 95 lbs. of body, leave to Tom Caswell, one spare wallet, use it with much satisfaction. To my brother Conan, I leave two better years at this hole that I ever had, you deserve it. I also leave to him Mr. Koepke, one elevator pass, and the cafeteria. To Terri Meyers, I leave a ticket to every dance, one free cup of hot chocolate, and Christmas caroling in July. To Vicki, I leave my white bag. To Sue Stec, I leave all of McDonald's including Carl. To JIM, I leave as many free meals as he wants, an island, and G.B.!!!! Yourself!!!

I, KATE FUERTGES, being of sound mind and body do hereby will the following: To Trinky Platte, I will the muzzie, given to me by Pooh, and also the wrestling team (excluding Michael); to little Harper, I leave a brisk Friday night jog around Highland Lakes at 1:00 a.m.; to the cheerleaders — one good practice, because they may never have one. To Mr. Simpson I leave A-8 — alias Room 222; To Vickie Purcell, I leave "Gerald's" because I just don't got the guts!!!! To my teachers, I leave my advanced, beyond belief, brain and the 45 of the "Impossible Dream"!! To Danny Platte — a long talk and a key. To the Sheriff — a gun and a million dollar smile! (to get out of trouble with)! To Sherm — a neck brace to keep "Buffaloes" away! and finally to Mike, a smile, a kiss, and my word, TO THE CLASS OF '78: ONE HELL OF A YEAR!

I, SUZANNE BABICH, of sound mind and body, do hereby forgive Leif for the $100, and do hereby will Julie, Tom, and Steve a great senior year.

I, LORI HOLLAND, of sound mind and body will to Kelly Sekan, a horse of her own choice to ride at her new house, and to Lori Stelmach, an arcade of her own with a miniature Joe so we don't have to spend our nights there, and to Kay, a car of her own so she doesn't have to share with Mike and also an extra closet to put all the rest of her clothes. To Cindy Scott, a new laugh so you can tell her from Julie. To Mr. Pedersen, a few new jokes for next year. To Cathy Coates, all our good times and to everyone else in this school, as much fun as it was.

MAGNIFICENT Mayflower Meetinghouse

The charm and elegance of a Viennese ballroom are right here in Plymouth at The Mayflower Meeting House, ready to be part of your wedding day. Your pleasure begins with the planning, as the Mayflower staff is able to provide every service for 100 to 450 persons, including excellent food and drink, creative flower decor and a delicious wedding cake. You'll greet your guests in an intimate reception lounge complete with beautiful fireplace and dine under the magic light of magnificent crystal chandeliers. And when you leave, even your exit will be memorable, as you throw your bouquet from the bridal balcony overlooking the entire room. 41 years of experience are at your service when you have your wedding reception or rehearsal dinner at the Mayflower.
